

Epilepsy Facts

Epilepsy does not affect men less than women

Epilepsy can affect employment opportunities

Effective seizure control is key when in the working environment

A physically active lifestyle can help reduce occurrence of seizures

Do not continue exercising if you feel faint, nauseous or dehydrated

Alcohol can increase the occurrence of seizures

Some anti-epileptic medication should not be taken when consuming alcohol www.epilepsy.org.za facebook.com/epilepsy.southafrica www.twitter.com/EpilepsySA

For more information call us on 0860 374537 or email info@epilepsy.org.za